Good evening as we have entered a period of purdah leading up to the elections in July much of the council business has ceased other essential activity that needs to be attended to.

I would like to thank the Chairman for highlighting at the Police Liaison meeting recently the issues regarding running a speed watch team to the inspector and it was good to have someone at the meeting with first hand experience to put the points across, With regards the police liaison meeting there has been some progress albeit slow but at least an upward trend.

The NOSC committee I sit on has been actively working to support the retention and recruitment of more fire fighters and progress has been made towards new contracts including lower hour contracts in some cases to try and keep numbers at an acceptable level.

I have recently been asked to act as a panel member on the sustainable food in Cornish schools transformation initiative, I was invited because of the scrutiny committee I sit on and my connections as a councillor advocate for the youth council also my years spent in agriculture give a different perspective to the academics on the panel.

Not always welcomed but that is the of these panels to get everyone's point of view across and come up with a balanced view and the best possible solution.
